OF PNEUMONIA IN FRANCE

Former Secretary to Judge J. C. Prit-chard Was With Army of Occupation.

Judge J. C. Pritchard, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, yesterday received information of the death in France of his former secretary, William A. Britt, a man well and favorably known in Richmond. Mr. Britt was about twenty-six years of acc and his home was at Asheville, N. C. He has been setving with the American forces in Europe and died of pneumonia while with the army of occupation in Germany. He was the son of former Congressman J. Britt, of Asheville, and his brother, Captain James Britt, is now with the army of occupation. A strange fatality seems to pursue andge Prichard's secretaries. The one who preceded Mr. Briti recently died and another one is now critically if.

The Other Day—

A lady came to look at Davenports, finally selected one of our $50 Davenports, and as she paid for it she remarked:

"Do you know that I've been to several other stores, and one of them offered this same identical Davenport at a sale price of $67.00!"

Which is just one of many similar experiences. And each one convinces us more and more that our way of selling high grade Furniture at low prices is making friends and bringing us new customers. Naturally, with our low rent and low expenses, we can afford to sell at a smaller margin of profit and keep down the prices.

Here are some of the quality lines we sell: Bloch Go-Carts and Strollers. New Process Gas Ranges. Leonard Cleanable Refrigerators. McKee Refrigerators. Seller's Kitchen Cabinets.
